

PCS Code of Conduct

Below is the Plumas Charter School Code of Conduct. We consider that the development of character is a particularly important part of a student's education, and we hold our students to a high standard of honesty, responsibility, fairness, and kindness. Each PCS student, upon enrollment, will be asked to sign a copy of this code:

As a member of the Plumas Charter School community, I pledge to conduct myself honorably and in a way that shows pride in myself, my family, my school, and my community. As a person of honor I will show:

1. Respect for Myself in everything I do I understand that my academic work, my attitude, my personal honor, and the honor of my school community are my personal responsibility. I will uphold this code by following it myself and by helping others in the school community to follow it. I understand that if I observe violations of this code and do not stand up for it, I have violated the code and dishonored myself, my school, my fellow students and my family. I accept my responsibility not to participate passively in a violation by allowing it to continue. I know that the teachers and staff of Plumas Charter School are always available to advise and help me to follow this Code of Conduct.
2. Respect for Others In all my words, expressions and actions, I will be kind and polite to teachers, staff and fellow students. I will respect the privacy of others. I will behave in a way that helps me and my fellow students to do our best in school.
3. Respect for Academic Honesty In all my school work, I will not cheat, plagiarize, represent the work of others as my own, or allow others to copy my work
4. Respect for Property I will not steal, deface, destroy or litter. I will treat my school as I would my home, and I will treat the property of others as private and not to be touched without permission.
